

HUMAN TRAFFICKING BEYOND THE BASICS:

Creating a Collaborative Regional Response

Dutchess, Westchester, Ulster, Orange, Rockland and Putnam Counties

Agenda

Wednesday, September 13, 2017 ● 8:30am-5pm

Poughkeepsie Grand Hotel ● 40 Civic Center Plaza ● Poughkeepsie, NY 12601

- 8:30 – 8:55 Breakfast, Sign in
- 8:55- 9:00 Welcome & Logistics of the Day - Courtney Albert, Give Way to Freedom
- 9:00 – 9:15 Opening Remarks - Marcus Molinaro, Dutchess County Executive
- 9:15 – 10:15 Key Note Address - Tina Frundt, Survivor/Speaker, Courtney's House
- 10:15- 11:00 The Value of a Collaborative Survivor Centered Approach
Alison Boak, Co-Founder and Executive Director, International Organization for Adolescents (IOFA)

Philip Goldstein, Director of Program Development, Westchester Department of Social Services, Child Welfare

Fredric I. Green, Second Deputy District Attorney Chief, Special Prosecutions Division Westchester County District Attorney's Office

Miriam E. Rocah, Co-Chief, White Plains Division, U.S Attorney's Office, Southern District New York

Bruce May, Victim Specialist, Federal Bureau of Investigation

Rebecca DeSimone, Director of Human Trafficking Program, My Sisters' Place
- 11:00- 11:15 Break
- 11:15 – 12:30 Panel Discussion – Labor Trafficking Case Presentation, Rockland County
Moderator: Amy Siniscalchi, Deputy Executive Director – Center for Safety & Change

Panelists:
Amanda Doty, Assistant District Attorney - Rockland County District Attorney's Office
Mary Murphy, Detective Lieutenant – Spirit of Rockland Special Victims Unit
Rob Fitzgerald, Detective - Ramapo Police Department
Belkis Soriano, Victim Advocate - Center for Safety & Change
- 12:30- 1:15 Lunch

HUMAN TRAFFICKING BEYOND THE BASICS:

Creating a Collaborative Regional Response

Dutchess, Westchester, Ulster, Orange, Rockland and Putnam Counties

- 1:15 -2:15 Common Mistakes in relating to CSEC Survivors: Trauma Informed Approaches in Therapy and the Courtroom
Dr. David Crenshaw – Children’s Home of Poughkeepsie
- 2:15 -2:20 Brief Break
- 2:20- 3:25 Panel Discussion – Sex Trafficking Case Presentation, Ulster County
Moderator: Courtney Albert, Founder & President – Give Way to Freedom
- Panelists:
Michael A. Iapoce, Esq. Commissioner – Ulster County Dept. of Social Services
Barbara J. Sorkin, Deputy Commissioner – Ulster County Dept. of Social Services
Jimmy McKoy, Law Enforcement Supervisor – Ulster County Family and Child Advocacy Center
Katherine Van Loan, Bureau Chief – Ulster County District Attorney’s Office, Special Victims Unit
- 3:25- 3:30 Brief Break
- 3:30 - 4:30 Panel Discussion – Sex Trafficking Case Presentation, Orange County
Moderator: Alison Boak, Founder and Executive Director – International Organization for Adolescents
- Panelists:
Special Agent Michael Ortiz – U.S. Department of Homeland Security
Detective Erik Eltz - City of Newburgh Police Department
Karen Smith – MDT Unit Supervisor, Orange County Department of Social Services
Doreen Dimiceli – MDT Unit Caseworker, Orange County DSS
- 4:30 – 5:00 Closing Remarks - Chief David Ryan, Pound Ridge Police Department
Meet & Greet